

I strongly urge that no changes be made to the Wisconsin No Call list. My wife and I do not want to be disturbed with phone calls by sales representatives trying to sell us something. Especially since they will call at all times of the day.